

the attending physician at periodic intervals. The physician will be asked to describe continuing medical treatment for the occupational illness accepted by OWCP, a prognosis, and the physician's opinion as to the continuing causal relationship between the need for additional treatment and the covered occupational illness.

MEDICAL BILLS

§ 30.420 How are medical bills submitted?

Usually, medical providers submit bills directly for processing. The rules for submitting and processing bills are stated in subpart H of this part. An employee claiming reimbursement of medical expenses should submit an itemized bill as described in § 30.702.

§ 30.421 What are the time frames for submitting bills?

To be considered for payment, bills must be submitted by the end of the calendar year after the year when the expense was incurred, or by the end of the calendar year after the year when OWCP first accepted the claim as compensable, whichever is later.

§ 30.422 If OWCP reimburses an employee only partially for a medical expense, must the provider refund the balance of the amount paid to the employee?

(a) The OWCP fee schedule sets maximum limits on the amounts payable for many services. The employee may be only partially reimbursed for medical expenses because the amount he or she paid to the medical provider for a service exceeds the maximum allowable charge set by the OWCP fee schedule.

(b) If this happens, OWCP shall advise the employee of the maximum allowable charge for the service in question and of his or her responsibility to ask the provider to refund to the employee, or credit to the employee's account, the amount he or she paid that exceeds the maximum allowable charge. The provider may request reconsideration of the fee determination as set forth in § 30.712.

(c) If the provider does not refund to the employee or credit to his or her account the amount of money paid in excess of the charge that OWCP allows, the employee should submit documentation of the attempt to obtain such refund or credit to OWCP. OWCP may authorize reasonable reimbursement to the employee after reviewing the facts and circumstances of the case.

Subpart F—Survivors; Payments and Offsets; Overpayments

SURVIVORS

§ 30.500 What special statutory definitions apply to survivors under the EEOICPA?

(a) EEOICPA provides that the classes of individuals listed as eligible "survivors" in section 8133 of title 5, United States Code, may also be eligible survivors under the EEOICPA. Those classes of individuals are specified in § 30.5(ee) of these regulations.

(b) EEOICPA adopts the order of precedence and proportions to be afforded to survivors as set forth in section 8109 of title 5, United States Code (see § 30.501).

§ 30.501 How will OWCP apply that order of precedence to determine what survivors are entitled to receive under the EEOICPA?

If OWCP determines that survivors are entitled to receive compensation under EEOICPA because a covered employee who would otherwise have been entitled to benefits is deceased, that compensation will be disbursed as follows, subject to the qualifications set forth in § 30.5(ee)(2) of these regulations:

(a) If there is no child, all to the widow or widower.

(b) If there are both a widow or widower and a child or children, one-half to the widow or widower and one-half to the child or children in equal shares.

(c) If there is no widow or widower, to the child or children in equal shares.

(d) If there is no survivor in the above classes, to the wholly or partly dependent parent or parents, and wholly dependent brother, sister, grandparent, or grandchild, in equal shares.
